

Doctors Who Are Familiar with the Ongoing Symptoms and Treatment of Arachnoid Cysts in Australia.

State: NSW

These are Drs recommended through other patients/please let us know of your own experience by email acystawaraustralia@gmail.com Att: patient feedback. Or through our Facebook page Thankyou.

| Doctor                     | Hospital                                                                                                                                                   | Phone         | Email                         | Comments                                                                                                                                                       |
|----------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|-------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Dr Mark Dexter             | Westmead PrivateAlso practises atWestmead Hospital &Westmead Children'sHospital                                                            | 02-9633-1900  |                               | Specialises in Neuro-surgery for Adults& Children. Practices in the Private andPublic sector                                                           |
| Dr Charlie Teo             | Practicing overseas atpresent.                                                                                                                         |               |                               | Specialises in Neuro-surgery for Adults& Children. Practices in the Privatesector                                                                      |
| Dr Brindha Shivlingham     | Campbelltown                                                                                                                                               | 02-8514-1470  |                               | Practices in the Private and Publicsector.                                                                                                                 |
| Dr Jacqueline McMaster | Brain and SpineCentre WestmeadSydney                                                                                                               | 02 9633- 1013 |                               | Consults at Westmead and Wahroonga.                                                                                                                            |
| Dr Mark Winder             | Sydney Brain andSpine. Suite 1302,Level 13 east WingBuilding( St Vincent'sPrivate Hospital) 406Victoria Street ,Darlinghurst, 2010 | 02 0382- 6724 | admin@sydneybrainandspine.com | Spine and Brain surgeon, practices inthe public and private sector, heoperates at St Vincent's Private, StVincent's Public and St Luke's Hospital. |
|                            |                                                                                                                                                            |               |                               |                                                                                                                                                                |

Doctors Who Are Familiar with the Ongoing Symptoms and Treatment of Arachnoid Cysts in Australia.

[illegible]

Doctors Who Are Familiar with the Ongoing Symptoms and Treatment of Arachnoid Cysts in Australia.

State: VIC

| Doctor             | Hospital                                                                 | Phone         | Email             | Comments                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|--------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|-------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Dr Alison Wray     | Royal Children's Hospital,Flemington RdParkville.                | 03 9349 5487  |                   | Paediatric neurosurgery Brain and Spine                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Dr Andrew Danks    | Monash Children's (Clayton)                                              | 03 9594-2886  |                   | Head of Neurosurgery for Monash Health. Operates at Monash and Children's Hospital. Specialises in Neuro-surgery for Adults & Children.                                                                                                                                   |
|                    |                                                                          |               |                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Prof Peter Hwang   | NeurosurgeryDept Alfred HospitalCommercial RdPahran Vic 3004 | 03 9076- 3761 |                   | Cranial neurosurgery.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Prof Jin Tee       | Level 6, Suite8/32 Erin StreetRichmond                           | 03 9427 1492  | info@msabc.com.au | He also treats patients at the Alfred Pahrn, Mulgrave Private Hospital Mulgrave, Peninsula Private Hospital, Frankston, Holmesglen Private Hospital, Moorabbin, And does Telehealth to Patients from Regional Victoria and New South Wales including Bendigo and Mildura. |
| Cont: Prof Jin Tee |                                                                          |               |                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |

Doctors Who Are Familiar with the Ongoing Symptoms and Treatment of Arachnoid Cysts in Australia.

State: Queensland

| Doctor           | Hospital                                                                                                  | Phone        | Email                 | Comments                                                                                                     |
|------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|-----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Prof Terry Coyne | Bowen Hills Medical Centre, Suite 1, 16 Thomas street Bowen Hills.                                        | 07-3833 2500 | info@brizbrain.com.au | He has retired from surgery but still doing consultations. He most likely would refer on if needing surgery. |
| Dr Norman Ma     | Royal Brisbane & Women's Hospital, Lady Cilento Children's Hospital                                       | 07-3833-2500 |                       | Specialises in Neuro-surgery for Adult & Children.                                                           |
| Dr Damien Almato | Mater Private, Princess Alexandra Hospital, Brisbane Clinical Neuro Science Centre                        | 07-3163-3600 | admin@bcnc.com.au     | Practices in the Private and Public sector.                                                                  |
| Dr Amelia Jarmin | Brisbane Clinical Neuroscience Centre Suite1, Level 3 Salmon Building Raymond Tce South Brisbane Qld 4101 | 07 3163 3600 | admin@bcnc.com.au     | Practices in the Private and Public sector sees adults and paediatrics.                                      |

Doctors Who Are Familiar with the Ongoing Symptoms and Treatment of Arachnoid Cysts in Australia.

State: South Australia

| Doctor                 | Hospital                                      | Phone        | Email | Comments                                                                                |
|------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|--------------|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Dr Stephen Santoreneos | Adelaide Women's and Children's Hospital 5006 | 08 8239-1100 |       | Practices Public and Private Adults and Children. Address 1 Kermode St Nth Adelaide S.A |

State: Western Australia

|                  |                                            |              |                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|------------------|--------------------------------------------|--------------|--------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Prof Gabriel Lee | Suite 4/85 Monash Ave,Nedlands WA 6009 | 08 9389 8515 | admin@profglee.com | We have only just been recommended this N/s so we are not familiar with him but it would be worth making contact as he has been recommended by a patient and has an understanding of symptomatic Arachnoid |
|------------------|--------------------------------------------|--------------|--------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Doctors Who Are Familiar with the Ongoing Symptoms and Treatment of Arachnoid Cysts in Australia.

|  |  |  |  |                                                                  |
|--|--|--|--|------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  |  |  |  | Cysts. This is the first one wehave been able to find in W.A |
|  |  |  |  |                                                                  |